The low turnout for the 25mile TT belied the quality of the riders with newly crowned Scottish veterans road race champion fighting tooth and nail against new KCC rider (and one of Fife Cycling Association's finest time trialists) Joe Macmillan. Both riders reported problems along the way with Joe missing the turn in Dollar and Andy sustaining a puncture 3km from the finish. Joe Macmillan clinched 1st place with a mere 3 second margin. Riding conditions were slightly damp but otherwise near perfect with only the lightest of northerly breezes to contend with. Marshals reported having to contend with a few predatory midges.

Once again our sponsor, Synergy Cycles have provided prizes for the GP Series. This week, rather than award for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place, and help along the jolly atmosphere of the evening, the prizes were awarded as follows;

CYCLING CLUB

Cleanest Bike: Stewart Proctor

Best Dresses: Kirsty Ellis

Lantern Rouge: Malcolm Adams.

Please see Wayne for your prizes.

Thankyou to Synergy Cycles.

Thankyou to Jane Timperley for the excellent match report.
